EATING DISORDERS

Have you ever been on a diet? If your answer is yes, you are one of the vast majority of Americans who tries to change their weight through lowering their caloric intake. (If your diet failed you, you are in the majority again: 95% of diets fail). When health is at risk due to severe excess weight, a change can be prudent. However, most dieters are trying only to change their looks—because they don’t measure up to people that the media uses to represent “ideal” body size.

When your diet fails, do you feel bad about yourself? Most of us do, because we believe the advertising myths that: 1) Everyone should look like the "ideal," and 2) if we only try hard enough, we can look like the ideal. Reality, however, is that diversity is healthy and genetics determine our body size. Belief in the advertising myths can be dangerous for our children, whose self-esteem is still developing and who are trying to “fit in.” As parents, we can help our kids feel good about themselves by accepting them unconditionally and by focusing on their inner qualities instead of their outward appearance. Our own more realistic attitudes can help to prevent low self-esteem, dangerous dieting habits, and eating disorders.

The presence of an unrealistic beauty ideal, coupled with a $40 billion diet industry, does not in itself cause eating disorders; but it does provide fertile ground in which they can grow and flourish. Because some eating disorder symptoms (such as weight obsession and erratic dieting) are actually seen as “normal” behavior in our culture, it becomes very difficult to recover from eating disorders once they have taken hold. (A recent statistic claims only one-third of patients fully recover.)

In the United States it is estimated that 5 – 10 million girls and women and 1 million boys and men are struggling with eating disorders including anorexia, bulimia, binge eating disorder or borderline conditions. (Shissak et.al. 1995)

For these reasons it is important that we, as parents, are aware of the signs and symptoms of eating disorders and also of what we can do to help prevent them in our children. (Eighty-six percent of eating disorder patients report onset by the age of 20.) Anorexia nervosa is characterized by the refusal to maintain a normal body weight; bulimia involves a recurring cycle of binge eating and purging. Extremes in exercise, weight changes, fear of food or fat, obsession with thinness, and the amount of food eaten or not eaten can be signals that a problem is developing. Keep the lines of communication open with your teen. If you are concerned, let them know in a gentle and supportive manner. Know the school or community resources you can turn to for help. Early identification affords a greater chance of recovery.

Cold vs. Flu

The flu (influenza) is a serious illness and children and adults should stay home from school or work if they have the flu. It is spread from person to person through coughing and sneezing. You can also get the virus from touching contaminated surfaces. People with the flu can infect others 1 day before the symptoms occur and up to 5 days after getting sick. The flu symptoms include a high fever, chills, dry cough, sore throat, severe headache, exhaustion, muscle and body aches. Children can also have additional symptoms such as nausea, vomiting, and diarrhea (rare in adults). The symptoms come on quickly and the person should seek medical attention for proper diagnosis and treatment.

The symptoms of a cold are a stuffy or runny nose, sneezing, sore throat, hacking cough and possibly a low-grade fever. Unlike the flu, these symptoms usually come on gradually.

Treatment for the cold and flu are rest and plenty of fluids. If you have a fever over 100 degrees you should stay home and return when fever free for 24 hours without medication to prevent spreading the virus. If diagnosed with the flu by a physician, you may be prescribed an antiviral medication, but for it to be effective, the medication must be taken within 48 hours after flu symptoms begin. Antibiotics are not effective against viruses. For a cold, over the counter medications can alleviate some of the symptoms. Caution: Unless advised by a physician, a child or teenager with flu-like symptoms should not take aspirin. Aspirin taken with the flu has been linked to Reyes Syndrome. Use a medication that does not contain aspirin.

To help prevent the spread of cold and flu viruses wash your hands frequently with warm soap and water, cover your nose and mouth with a tissue when coughing or sneezing and throw the tissue away, or sneeze into your sleeve. Do not share drinks or utensils. Disinfect frequently touched surfaces in the home and school.

Another way to possibly prevent infection from the flu is to get vaccinated every year, especially if you have a chronic health condition, like asthma. October and November are the best times to get vaccinated.

For additional information on the influenza virus, visit www.cdc.gov/flu.

For information on flu clinics, please call or check the web sites of your local town or village, Jewel-Osco, Walgreens, CVS or if residents of Cook County, the Cook County Health Department at 847-818-2860.
Self-Injurious Behavior

Self-injurious behavior, also known as self-harm, self-inflicted violence, or self-mutilation is defined as deliberate repetitive, impulsive, non-lethal harming of one's body. This direct injury causes tissue damage or leaves marks for more than a few minutes and is done in order to deal with an overwhelming or distressing situation. Self-injury includes: cutting, scratching, picking scabs or interfering with wound healing, burning, punching self or objects, infecting oneself, inserting objects in body openings, bruising or breaking bones, some forms of hair pulling, as well as other various forms of bodily harm.

Approximately 1% of the population has, at one time or another, used self-inflicted physical injury as a means of coping with an overwhelming situation or feeling. The typical onset is at puberty and there are a higher proportion of females than males. In general, persons seeking background, of average to high intelligence, and have low self-esteem.

Self-injurers commonly report that they feel empty inside, over or under stimulated, unable to express their feelings, lonely, not understood by others and fearful of intimate relationships and adult responsibilities. Self-injury is their way to cope with or relieve painful or hard to express feelings and is generally not a suicide attempt. Relief is only temporary, though, and a self-destructive cycle often develops without proper treatment.

Only a licensed psychiatric professional can determine the diagnosis for someone who self-injures.

New Fund Named After Arlington Mascot to Support Student Success

The District 214 Education Foundation has announced the creation of The Cardinal Fund, named for the mascot of Arlington High School, the District's first school. The fund, aimed at college and career success, will directly support Advanced Placement tests for students who cannot afford them, opening the door to early college credit and thousands of dollars in college tuition. It also will support credentialing fees for District 214 students who complete career credentials while still in high school, positioning them for future success.

AP tests cost approximately $100, and credentials can reach $300. In a time when more than 25 percent of District 214 students live in poverty, a single gift to The Cardinal Fund can have a significant impact on a student's future.

The fund was created with the goal of an eventual endowment; Arlington alumni have issued a challenge to raise $500,000 for the fund toward that goal.

To give, visit www.d214.org/foundation and look for The Cardinal Fund.

The fund was formally launched amid applause at an all-years Arlington High School homecoming held in September, which drew more than 750 alumni to the old school building on Euclid Avenue in Arlington Heights. Arlington High School closed in 1984 amid declining District enrollment, after educating generations of Cardinals.

The District 214 Education Foundation is a 501(c)(3) organization supporting innovation, student success and lifelong learning across District 214. Contributions are tax-deductible.

District 214 Panel Previews 2018 Illinois Gubernatorial Election

District 214 Community Education will welcome political journalists and other experts in October for a conversation outlining issues at the heart of the Illinois gubernatorial election -- part of a continued effort to engage community members on topics of importance.

The free event is scheduled for 7 p.m. Tuesday, October 17 in the theater at Forest View Educational Center, 2121 S. Goebbert Road in Arlington Heights.

Community members are invited to explore the trends and topics shaping the 2018 gubernatorial campaign in Illinois, and will have an opportunity to submit written questions.

Panelists include Jim Slusher, deputy managing editor for the opinion section at the Daily Herald; Natasha Korecki, senior reporter for POLITICO and author of Illinois Playbook; Bob Secter, director of investigations for the Better Government Association; and Constance Mixon, an associate professor of political science at Elmhurst College.

Prospect High School journalism and American studies teacher Jason Block will moderate.

Though the event is free, seats are limited. To secure your seat, visit www.d214.org/panel.
District 214 Offers Opportunities for Students to Earn College Credit While in High School

High School District 214 is committed to offering students opportunities to earn college credits while they are in high school, with an ultimate goal of ensuring students leave our doors poised to excel.

Our early college credit opportunities – Advanced Placement courses, Credit by Exam and Dual Credit courses – help improve students’ study skills and critical thinking, while also saving them time in college and money on tuition.

As a result of our efforts, more than 3,000 District 214 students are annually enrolled in dual-credit courses, simultaneously earning high school and college credit. Additionally, more than 9,600 students are enrolled in Advanced Placement courses, positioning them for college credits following the successful completion of an exam.

What began as a concerted effort to ensure our students have diverse opportunities to achieve early college credits has now become second nature. We know that if they learn how to be successful in college when they are here with us, they will be prepared, with tremendous potential, for success when they leave our doors.

Students and parents can learn more about early college credit opportunities by talking to their school counselor. Additional dual credit information can be found at www.d214.org/academics/early-college-credit.

New Feature Will Allow Parents to Pay Fees Online

This fall parents and guardians now have the option to make online payments through the Infinite Campus Parent Portal.

This online feature, which launched in September, lets parents and guardians pay for items such as overdue library books, lost textbooks and deferred registration, among others, in Infinite Campus by credit card or personal check. The Parent Portal lists all outstanding fees that are owed to the school.

This portal is a reliable and secure electronic payment system to pay fees at any time and at your convenience. At this time, a transaction fee will not be charged.

School registration fees will still be collected in-person at our schools. If you do not have a Parent Portal login, please contact 847-718-6565.
Emergency Contact Information

In the unfortunate event that an emergency or crisis situation occurs in our area during the school day, we want you to know that Elk Grove High School is prepared. With the help of the Elk Grove Fire and Police Departments, we have designed a Standardized School Crisis Plan that will assist us in effectively responding to these types of situations.

While your natural instinct as a parent in an emergency is to go to your child’s school to safeguard him/her, please understand that doing so may significantly impede our response capabilities as well as those of our local emergency responders. It is vital that school officials and the Police and Fire Departments have access to our buildings to manage the situation and give care to students. In addition, it may be necessary to evacuate students to another location if there is immediate danger.

In an emergency or crisis situation, we need your cooperation and assistance and ask that you please follow the guidelines below:

- In the event of a crisis that requires an evacuation/relocation of students, contact 847-718-7605 for information. In all other emergency situations, contact 847-718-4400.
- Tune to major local television and radio stations for information on the situation and instructions on how to reunite with your child. In some emergency or crisis situations, it may be necessary to relocate to another facility for safety reasons. Your designated reunification site is Forest View Educational Center located at 2121 S. Goebbert Road in Arlington Heights.
- When you travel to the reunification site, please be sure to bring picture identification. We will only release students to their legal guardians, or the authorized individuals as listed on your child’s emergency forms.

We thank you for your cooperation in this matter.
Our ultimate goal is to keep your children safe while they are under our care.

Revised: 9/2015
Información de Contacto de Emergencia

En el lamentable caso de que ocurra una emergencia o una situación de crisis en nuestra área durante el día escolar, queremos que sepa que Elk Grove High School está preparada. Con la ayuda de los Departamentos de Policía y de Bomberos de Elk Grove, hemos diseñado un Plan Estandarizado ante Crisis en la Escuela que nos ayudará a responder de manera eficaz ante estos tipos de situaciones.

Si bien el instinto natural como padre ante una emergencia es dirigirse a la escuela de su hijo para protegerlo, entienda que hacer eso puede obstaculizar de forma significativa nuestras capacidades de respuesta, así como la de los socorristas locales. Es imprescindible que los funcionarios escolares y los Departamentos de Policía y Bomberos tengan acceso a nuestros edificios para manejar la situación y brindar atención a los alumnos. Además, puede ser necesario evacuar a los alumnos a otra ubicación si existe peligro inmediato.

Ante una emergencia o situación de crisis, necesitamos su cooperación y asistencia, y le solicitamos que siga las siguientes pautas:

- En caso de una crisis que requiera la evacuación/reubicación de los alumnos, llame al 847-718-7605 para obtener información. En todas las demás situaciones de emergencia, llame al 847-718-4400.
- Sintonice la televisión local y las estaciones de radio más importantes para obtener información sobre la situación e instrucciones acerca de cómo reencontrarse con su hijo. En algunas situaciones de emergencia o crisis, puede ser necesaria la reubicación a otra instalación por motivos de seguridad. El lugar designado para la reunificación es Forest View Educational Center ubicado en 2121 S. Goebbert Road en Arlington Heights.
- Cuando vaya al lugar de reunificación, asegúrese de traer una identificación con fotografía. Sólo permitiremos que los tutores legales o las personas autorizadas recojan a los alumnos conforme a lo indicado en los formularios de emergencia de su hijo.

Gracias por su colaboración en este asunto.

Nuestro objetivo máximo es mantener a sus hijos a salvo mientras se encuentren bajo nuestro cuidado.

Meetings for the PTC will be held on the first Tuesday of each month starting in September at 7:30 pm in the foyer conference room. Follow us on Twitter @PTC_EGHS and Facebook - EGHS Parent Teacher Council for info on volunteer opportunities, meetings, and much more!
